Cookie Policy (ZA)

The Cookie Policy was last updated on January 2025

Our website, <https://mufasaps.co.za> (hereinafter: "the website") uses cookies and other related technologies (for convenience all technologies are referred to as "cookies"). Cookies are also placed by third parties we have engaged. In the document below we inform you about the use of cookies on our website.

Mufasa Protection Services policy is to respect your privacy regarding any information we may collect while using our website. We respect your privacy and are committed to protecting personal information you may provide through the Website. We adopted this ("Privacy Policy") to explain what information may be collected on our Website how we use this information and under what circumstances we may disclose the information to third parties. This Privacy Policy applies only to information we collect through the Website and does not apply to our collection of information from other sources.

This Privacy Policy and the Terms and Conditions posted on our Website set forth the general rules and policies governing your use of our Website. Depending on your activities when visiting our Website you may be required to agree to additional terms and conditions.

Like most website operators it collects non-personally identifying information of the sort that web browsers and servers typically make available such as the browser type, language preference, referring site and the date and time of each visitor request. Our purpose in collecting non-personally identifying information is to understand better how our visitors use the website.

We also collect potentially personally identifying information like Internet Protocol (IP) addresses for logged-in users and for users leaving comments on blog posts under the same circumstances that it uses and discloses personally-identifying information as described below.

Certain visitors to Mufasa Protection Services websites choose to interact in ways that require us to gather personally-identifying information. The amount and type of information that gathers depends on the nature of the interaction. For example we may ask visitors who sign up to comment on a blog to provide a username and email address or ask visitors requesting a quote to provide their name, email address and phone number.

The security of your Personal Information is important to us but remember that no method of transmission over the Internet or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. While we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your Personal Information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

Ads on our website may be delivered to users by advertising partners who may set cookies. These cookies allow the ad server to recognise your computer each time they send you an online advertisement to compile information about you or others who use your computer. This information allows ad networks to, among other things, deliver targeted advertisements that they believe will be most interesting to you. This Privacy Policy covers the use of cookies by and does not cover the use of cookies by any advertisers.

Our Service may contain links to external sites that we do not operate. If you click on a third-party link, you will be directed to that third-party's site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy and terms and conditions of every site you visit.

We have no control over and assume no responsibility for the content, privacy policies or practices of any third-party sites, products or services.

Mufasa Protection Services may use Google AdWords, Facebook and other advertising platforms for marketing. We may use the marketing services to advertise on third-party websites (including but not limited to Google, Facebook and YouTube) to previous visitors to our site. It could mean that we advertise to previous visitors who haven't completed a task on our site for example using the contact form. This could be in the form of an advertisement on the Google search results page or a site in the Google Display Network. Third-party vendors including Google use cookies to serve ads based on someone's past visits. Of course any data collected will be used per our privacy policy and Google's privacy policy.

This site may use affiliate links and does earn a commission from certain links.

To enrich and perfect your online experience we may use "Cookies" similar technologies and services provided by others to display personalised content and appropriate advertising.

A cookie is a string of information that a website stores on a visitor's computer and the visitor's browser provides to the website each time the visitor returns. Mufasa Protection Services uses cookies to help its partners identify and track visitors and their website access preferences. Visitors who do not wish to have cookies placed on their computers should set their browsers to refuse cookies before using our website with the drawback that certain features of our website may not function properly without the aid of cookies.

By continuing to navigate our website without changing your cookie settings you hereby acknowledge and agree to the use of cookies.

Although most changes are likely minor we may change our Privacy Policy occasionally and at our sole discretion. We encourage visitors to frequently check this page for any changes to the Privacy Policy.
